

Blah Blah Blah

You tell me why you didn't show last night didn't come last night kept me waiting

Comes out your mouth like poetry You spin your lies like you're figure skating

You know what's funny is you think I'm tolerating it

I've had enough of your blah blah blah
Your lips are moving I hear blah blah blah
Gonna put you out of my misery
Sick of you feeding me
All your blah blah blah

I used to fall for your duplicity silly stupid me
I was blinded

But now I know you're an empty vase just a pretty face nothing behind it

You know what's funny is you still believe I'm buying it

I've had enough of your blah blah blah
Your lips are moving I hear blah blah blah
Gonna put you out of my misery
Sick of you feeding me
All this blah blah blah

I've had enough of your blah blah blah
Your lips are moving I hear blah blah blah
Gonna put you out of my misery
Sick of you feeding me
All this blah blah blah

Too much blah blah blah
Always blah blah blah
No more blah blah blah
